And the Winner Is

Garnet!

NEW YORK — Garnet (owned by Karen Ellery, trained by Carla) Coupe won this year’s Wessex Cup. It was the closest ever – a real thriller! Garnet and Kipling (owned by David, of The Mysterious Bookshop) met for the championship. The race was a dead heat. Even aided with slow-motion instant replay from producers Mark Jones and Matt Hall, official scorer Phil Bergem was unable to declare winner. So, there was a re-running, which Garnet won by a nose.

Kipling’s owner was gracious in defeat (as was the horse), and so were Garnet et al. in victory. Video of all seven races will be available soon via “Doings of Doyle” at <https://www.doingsofdoyle.com/>.
